

About the Presenter

Randall E. Fisher has had an active trial and appellate practice for more than 40 years. In the past, he has extensive experience in personal injury, medical malpractice, products liability, insurance law, and other related areas, on both the plaintiff and defense side of these cases. In addition, he has written and lectured on various legal topics during that time and has presented more than 150 CLE seminars for the KBA, KTLA, WBA and other organizations. He taught as an adjunct professor at Wichita State and the Presidents College of Law. He is a former Sedgwick County District Court Judge. In 1999, he was a finalist for Judge of the Kansas Court of Appeals.

He just completed the third edition of the Kansas Automobile Insurance Law Handbook. It will be published and distributed by the Kansas Bar Association and is scheduled to be released early this year. It approximately 700 pages covering all facets of automobile insurance law.