

Heather Blanton has worked with victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, and stalking for over 9 years. She is currently the Criminal Justice Project Coordinator for the Kansas Coalition against Sexual and Domestic Violence (KCSDV) where she works to develop protocols and best practice standards for criminal justice system professionals on the issues of sexual assault, stalking, domestic violence and enforcement of protection orders across the state of Kansas.

Jenna Christophel is the Immigration Project Attorney for KCSDV. She came to the coalition from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Jenna heads the Immigration Project Team that works closely with the Legal Assistance to Victims Team to provide immigrant survivors of sexual and domestic violence better access to immigration benefits in the United States through legal representation.
